OUR CHOICE.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES G. BLAINE, of Maine.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
JOHN A. LOGAN, of Illinois.
FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS,
L. BRADFORD PRINCE.

Some Lucid Facts.

Sunday evening previous to the meeting of the late Republican convention at Santa Fe, the supporters of Judge Prince and Col. Rynerson held caucuses at the Palace Hotel. In the Prince caucus fifty-six votes were counted on as being sold for Prince, excluding the contesting delegations from San Miguel county. In the Rynerson caucus thirty-five votes were all that could be depended on for the nomination of Rynerson, also excluding San Miguel county. After the adjournment of both caucuses it was conceded by Col. Rynerson and his friends that he did not stand any chance of being nominated unless one of the San Miguel delegation were admitted by the central committee, and Col. Rynerson himself stated to one of the Socorro delegates that his nomination depended entirely on the action of the central committee. It was at this time that Rynerson conceived the plan of getting the central committee to violate all precedents, usurp the rights of the convention, and take upon itself the power of deciding the rights of contesting delegations. It was his only and last chance of receiving the nomination, and in his desperate situation, he concluded to avail himself of his last opportunity, let the result be as disastrous to the party as it might. The committee entered into an investigation of the merits of the two contesting delegations from San Miguel county, and after spending an entire day, finally decided to admit the Romero delegation. None of the friends of Col. Rynerson attempt to defend the committee in taking this arbitrary course. When the convention met and before Mr. Luna had been placed in nomination the chairman recognized Mr. Tiffany of this county and a resolution was offered excluding all contesting delegates until their case could be heard by the committee on credentials. This resolution was passed whereupon Col. Rynerson's supporters left the convention and bolted the Republican ticket. Now what does all this indicate? It demonstrates simply this: Col. Rynerson undertook to play a trick on the convention; the convention would not submit to this trickery, and he bolted. Was there ever a more inexcusable bolt than this? Was there ever a bolt from the action of a Republican convention that merited more severe censure and condemnation? The Republican party is equal to all great emergencies. It heroically met and stamped out treason and rebellion in the nation. It is strong and mighty enough to meet and stamp out treason and rebellion in the party in New Mexico.

Rynerson's Bolt.

The laborious efforts of Col. Rynerson and his friends to justify his bolting the late Republican convention at Santa Fe, are as ridiculous as the course taken by them is unrepentant. Rynerson is a bolter—a traitor to the Republican party of this Territory—and it is doing injustice to the English language to characterize his conduct by any other name. Every person who took part in the late convention knows that it was the intention of Rynerson to defeat Prince or bolt the convention. Threats of this nature were made on the streets in Santa Fe during the two days preceding the meeting of the convention, and Rynerson's bolt in the convention was simply carrying out a pre-arranged plan. The cry of ring rule and "arbitrary rulings of Breeden" is absurd and nonsensical. It is well known by the supporters of Judge Prince that the entire Santa Fe delegation was at heart opposed to his nomination, and two of them were actively working against him. Catron worked with all his ability to bring about Prince's defeat, and furnished the brains of the opposition. In fact the "Santa Fe ring" used its influence against Prince, and contributed nothing towards his nomination. Socorro and Bernalillo counties are the counties mostly instrumental in bringing about Judge Prince's nomination, and it certainly cannot be claimed that they are in sympathy with that mythical bugbear, the "Santa Fe ring." The truth is that Rynerson knowing that his bolt is one that cannot be justified on any ground, seeks to raise the cry of "ring rule" in order to cover his own treason to the Republican party. It remains to be seen whether the Republicans of this Territory will give countenance to a man whose only motive for being a Republican is personal gain, and when defeated in his ambition deliberately attempts to ruin the party.

If there was anything in the conduct of the Santa Fe convention which surprised us more than another, it was the action of the Hon. G. W. Prichard. The Republicans throughout the Territory were just beginning to recognize him as one of their bravest and brightest leaders—a man that could not be influenced by factions or induced to deviate from the true principles of the grand old party. It was thought and believed that he would stand by the party as paramount to the interest of any individual or faction. And for these reasons he had assumed a position in the front ranks as a party leader, and it was to him perhaps more than any other that the Republicans looked to and hoped that his influence would bring about a conciliation which might result in harmonious action. But instead of the brave, bold Prichard standing up for the paramount interest of the party, as above that of individual factions; we find that he allows his temper to get the better of his judgment, and on the impulse of the moment, he allows himself to drift into the toils of party disaffection with Col. Frank Chavez and others of his ilk, and using the most bitter imprecations against a brother leading Republican who would under other circumstances be his friend. We are the more surprised because we always supposed that such action was beneath the dignity and manhood of the man. Col. Prichard's friends all over the Territory (and they are many) can only regret the step he has taken, and no one regrets it more than us, for there was no man in the Territory for whom we had more respect personally or politically.

Col. Rynerson stopped off at Socorro on his way home from the convention on last Friday. The cool manner in which he was received made the Col. look blue and chilly, and he left on the first train. While here, however, he made several of our old settlers blush by his extreme denunciation of the Santa Fe ring, for everybody who knows anything about the political history of the Territory, knows that for nearly twenty years Col. Rynerson has been the willing tool and catpaw for the Hon. T. B. Catron and his friends, in fact he has been one of their chief end men, ever ready to do their dirty work for the few crumbs which he might receive at their hands. All that he is now, and all that he has acquired he justly owes to the combination of gentlemen known as the Santa Fe ring.

Our old friend, the Golden Retort has just commenced to visit us as an exchange. We are glad to get it Col. but great Caesar what a change from yon olden time. Its present appearance reminds us of the condition of the parrot when it related its experience with the monkey. The general tone of the paper seems to be against everybody and, for nothing in particular. Therefore the query must force itself upon the minds of its readers, what is it published for anyhow? Colored you have our sympathy, but we are afraid you have permitted yourself to become so much soured that the outside world may mistake your case and mark you down as a little cranky. Bolster up Colonel, fight your enemies but do not monkey too much with your friends and oppose the whole universe.

No one will dispute the fact that Col. Frank Chavez is now the greatest chronic bolter of the age. He bolts everything. He bolts the Legislature because he could not have the organization of the same all his own way and for the same reason he bolted the Santa Fe convention. When he was prosecuting attorney, it is said that he bolted out of Socorro on one occasion, and had a large following which encouraged him to go. That he will continue to bolt and kick when he is dead, and will finally bolt the devil by raising a "raucous" in hades, no one doubts who knows his ability and cranky disposition to raise merry Christmas in any and every organization to which he may unfortunately belong.

Calhoun and Hudson will not join the miscreants this season.

Lorion Miller, one of our Democratic sachems, says that the nomination of Joseph was done to perpetrate a good joke on the Republicans. That they beat the Republicans two years ago with a Mexican, now they propose to beat them with a "nigger," and two years hence they will put up a Chinaman and beat us. And we are not quite certain that they will not succeed and would not be against a "yaller" dog so long as fools have a following in the Republican party of this Territory.

In speaking of the Santa Fe convention the Lincoln County Leader came out frankly and hits the nail on the head as follows:

Now if both could be unanimously elected, each candidate and his friends would be gratified. But seriously, we think that the central committee over-leaped its powers—and not innocently—in even considering the question relating to contesting delegates, (the question which provoked the riot), that being first the province of the committee on credentials, and finally of the convention proper.

It is said that Col. G. W. Fox will take the stump for the Democratic candidate to congress, and judging from what a friend overheard the other evening he is preparing for the conflict, at least our informant says that he was trudging along the street apparently in a deep study humming in a low tone: 'T's comin', 'T's comin' old black Joe (seph), hie!

It may not have been the Colonel, but it might have been Roberts.

The Colfax Stockman says: Antony Joseph, as far as known, is an honest, upright and fairly educated citizen; but where the gentleman rubs hard against the side of the Democratic party is the race from which he descends. It is said that his father was a Portuguese and his mother a negress.

As a Republican we cannot consistently kick on his mothers account, but we are down on the portuguese.

Yes, it's true we didn't get our first choice for delegate, and now we don't know what to do. Pray tell us. Our powder is dry—ready for immediate and effective use—but which way shall we point our cannon?—[Optis.

Put in your time on the black birds neighbor, until the Rynerson geese are settled.

The effort to palm off A. Joseph on our Spanish Americans as a native born citizen will not work. They say that he was brought to New Mexico at the age of two years, and that he has no Spanish blood in his veins. Poor Joseph will never get to be chief butler of New Mexico.

Roberts, of Socorro, may not have been able to make Sun while the hay shines, but before long he will make his enemies see stars.—Democrat.

His enemies will hardly survive unless they keep out of his shoes. Those ants are a terrible pest.

A majority of our Democratic friends in Socorro county will decline to put on the dogs for the Joseph combination this fall. They may go to the show but they will not dance to the music of the new organ.

Dave Easton one of the Rynerson bolters openly charged Hon. F. A. Manzanarez with irregular speculations in Gov't hay. Dave had better tell the people what he knows about Lincoln county Wool.

The Lone Star came to us last week for the first time, marked X. All right brother Newman we are only too glad to place the name of your bright new paper upon our list of exchanges.

When Tom Catron said, "What in the h—l is the use of the majority bolting," he new the majority had not bolted.

Judge Prince will have an easy walk-over as against the Portuguese hotentot and against the Sycophant of the Rio Grande valley.

The candidacy of Bill Rynerson is the illegitimate product of the Frank Chavez bastard "contention."

For the benefit of our Democratic readers we publish their Territorial platform in full this week.

The Hon. T. B. Catron stands up boldly for Rynerson and against the Santa Fe ring.

NOTICE.

Silver Mountain Mining district, Socorro county, Territory of New Mexico, June 19th A. D., 1884. To William Smyth and others whom it may concern: You are hereby notified that I, the undersigned, have expended 100 dollars worth of work in labor which has been expended on the Maggie Merchant lode mining claim situated in Silver Mountain mining district, Socorro county, Territory of New Mexico, during the year ending December 31st, 1883. Such expenditure was made by Robert A. McClellan, one of the owners of said mining claim, in order to hold the said claim under Section 2334 Revised Statutes of the United States, being the amount required to hold the same for the year ending December 31st, 1883; and if, within the period of ninety days after the publication of this notice, you fail or refuse to contribute your respective proportion of said expenditure in said claim, it will become the property of the subscriber under said Section 2334.

Signed
7-20 ROBERT A. McCLELLAN.
